CERTAINTY OF QUALITY AND GUARANTEED SATISFACTION—CERTAIN-TEED

Shelter

One of Mankind's Supreme Necessities

The four principal necessities of Man are food, shelter, clothing and transportation; and the need of, and the desire to better them increases proportionately to the advance of civilization.

As civilization advances shelter becomes more and more the predominant factor in Man's life. Today he cannot maintain the other necessities—food, clothing and transportation—unless he has shelter. Today the type of shelter prevailing is indicative of the stage of civilization reached by Mankind.

Certain-teed Paints, Varnishes, Asphalt Roofings and related Building Products are shelter products typical of the most advanced state of civilization. From Arctic to Anarctic and East to West you find Certain-teed serving Mankind.

On and in buildings of all types—residences, factories, mills, smelters, warehouses, etc.—Certain-teed is performing the duties required by present day civilization.

The name Certain-teed means "certainty of quality and guaranteed satisfaction," and is recognized the world over by governments, bankers, merchants and consumers as one of the highest repute and absolute protection against inferior products.

Sold or can be quickly obtained by all reliable dealers.

ON THE OTHER ISLANDS

Salvation Army Head Coming—General Bramwell Booth, head of the Salvation Army, is due to arrive in Honolulu July 9, en route to the mainland. Although the general will remain but a few hours, a public reception is being arranged.

Congressional Party July 10—The Congressional party on board the transport Great Northern is due to arrive in Honolulu on July 10. Public bodies of the city are arranging a reception.

Danger Waived—Because they were considered dangerous, three theaters in Hilo were recently closed. For the reason, however, that there will be an unusually large crowd to be entertained in Hilo the authorities have agreed to let the places open for 5 days at 4th of July time.
